2. SUMMARY OF THIS LAWSUIT

This lawsuit is pending in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. It was commenced by Plaintiff Steven Basile (“Plaintiff”) on behalf of himself and all persons in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with similar claims. Plaintiff alleged that Defendants’ acts and omissions in connection with its Variable Rate Electricity Plans in Pennsylvania, including the rates and amounts charged under such plans, constitute breach of contract.

Defendants are defending against and deny all of Plaintiff’s allegations. The Court has not ruled on the merits of Plaintiff’s claims or allegations nor has it ruled on the merits of Defendants’ defenses. This Notice is not an expression of any opinion by the Court as to the merits of any of the claims or defenses asserted by either side in this lawsuit.

3. THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

The Court certified this lawsuit to proceed as a class action for purposes of the proposed settlement. The Settlement Class is defined as:

All persons in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania who were enrolled as a customer of Defendants and were on Defendants' Variable Rate Electricity Plan at any time during the Class Period (i.e., June 1, 2011 through May 31, 2018.).

The term "Variable Rate Electricity Plan" means any and all variable rate electricity plans that were offered by Defendants to residential customers in Pennsylvania.

Excluded from the Settlement Class are: Defendants, any entities in which Defendants have a controlling interest, and any of their parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, and directors; the presiding judge(s) in this case and her(their) immediate family; and any person who has previously released claims against Defendants, including but not limited to persons who released claims against Defendants pursuant to the settlement of a complaint submitted to the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission.

Under the proposed settlement, members of the Settlement Class will release all manner of actions, causes of action, suits, accounts, claims, demands, controversies, judgments, obligations, injuries, damages and liabilities of any nature whatsoever, arising out of or relating to any conduct, act, or omission of any of the Released Persons concerning any of the conduct or similar conduct alleged or that could have been alleged in this Litigation, or that relates to or arises out of the rates charged to customers in connection with Defendants' Variable Rate Electricity Plans in Pennsylvania.

The term "Released Persons" means Defendants and all of their current and former parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, and assigns, and each of their respective, current, and former officers, directors, partners, owners, employees, agents, attorneys, and insurers.

4. INTERIM COUNSEL AND CLASS REPRESENTATIVE

In a class action, one or more persons are appointed to serve as the "class representative" to represent the interests of all persons with similar claims or defenses. In this case, the Court appointed Plaintiff Stephen Basile to serve as the class representative. The Court also approved Jonathan Shub of the firm Kohn Swift & Graf, P.C. and Troy M. Frederick of the firm Marcus & Mack, P.C. to serve as Interim Counsel for the Settlement Class.

5. SETTLEMENT BENEFIT AND CLAIMS PROCESS

Eligible Settlement Class Members who submit a valid claim shall be entitled to payment as follows:

B) Exclude Yourself: If you do not want to participate in this proposed settlement and you want to retain the right to sue Defendants about the legal issues in this case, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the proposed settlement. If you opt out of the settlement, you cannot obtain any monetary benefit from the proposed settlement, nor can you object to the proposed settlement. If you ask to be excluded, you may bring a different lawsuit against Defendants at your own cost. If you exclude yourself, you will not be bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit. If the Court denies approval of the proposed settlement, no settlement payments will be sent out and the lawsuit will continue.

You or your attorney may file an appearance in this case with the Clerk at your own expense. If you appear through your own attorney, you are responsible for paying that attorney. Otherwise, unless you decide to exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you will be represented by Interim Counsel. You will not have to pay Interim Counsel any attorneys’ fees, costs or expenses for their professional services.

7. FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The Court is scheduled to hold a Final Approval Hearing (also known as a “Fairness Hearing”) at 10:00 a.m. on September 28, 2018 in Courtroom 4 of the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, Ronald Reagan Federal Bldg. & U.S. Courthouse, 228 Walnut Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101. The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change without further notice. You may review the Court’s docket for scheduling information.

At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will consider whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, after hearing and considering any objections that may be filed. The Court also will consider Interim Counsel’s request to be appointed Class Counsel and for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses, and a proposed incentive award of $5,000 for Plaintiff in recognition of his time and energy devoted to serving and representing the Settlement Class. Defendants have agreed to pay attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses in an amount to be approved by the Court, of up to $1,050,000. The Court may award less than that amount. Any fees, costs, and expenses awarded to Class Counsel will not reduce the amount of settlement benefits available to the Settlement Class.

You do not need to attend the Final Approval Hearing. Interim Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have regarding the Settlement Class’s position regarding the settlement. However, you may attend the hearing at your own expense. If you send a written objection to the Court, you do not have to attend the Final Approval Hearing to have that objection considered. As long as you submitted your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may have your own lawyer attend the Final Approval Hearing (at your expense), but it is not necessary that you do so in order for the Court to consider your written objection. To be heard at the Final Approval Hearing you must follow the procedure described in Section 6 above.
